All Instruments Professional Development

Arrive 9.15 for registration

9.30-10.30 "What (Really) Matters" - presenter Zeah Riordan

At the Talent Research Institute in Matsumoto, graduating teachers pledge to continue to study and reflect in order to 'be better able to concentrate energies toward better teaching.' At the start of the teaching year, let us take an hour to reflect on the core values of Suzuki Approach, and renew our sense of purpose in how we can best work with families to continue to realize Suzuki's vision amidst the busyness of life in 2018.

10.30 - 11.30 "Pre-Twinkle Group Activities" (for any instrument) - presenter Lucy Adeney

11.30 -12.00 Break

12.00 - 1.00 "Creating a Dynamic Studio" - presenter Toni Robson

Piano Professional Development

1.45 - 2.45 How to Secure the Basics of Tone and Technique in Book 1 - presenter Margaret Bland

2.45 - 3.30 Russian Piano Music with special reference to the Puppet Dances of Shostakovich - presenter Nona Berter

3.30 - 3.45 Ensemble Collaboration with Other Suzuki Instrumental Studios - presenter Yuko Ikeda

3.45 - 4.15 Break

4.15 - 5.00 Effective Practice Ideas for Students and Teachers - presenter Julia Breen

Including how to communicate to parents and students about the importance of quality practice. What to do when the practice disintegrates.....

5.00 - 5.15 Q & A /Show and Tell

An opportunity to discuss teaching issues and share ideas.

October Piano PD - advance notice

Saturday 6 October, am, 3 hours

This PD will feature a guest presenter who will give masterclass lessons to students and give a presentation comparing technical and stylistic requirements of music from two contrasting periods/composers (eg Beethoven and Debussy). Exact topic will be confirmed when the presenter is confirmed.
